VOLUME XXIV

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY AUG. 2, 1921.

NUMBER 41

Married at High Noon.

Last Thursday, at 12 o'clock m., in the parlors of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, Miss Edna Lewis, one of Columbia's popular young ladies, was happily wedded to Mr. James S. Kahn, a prosperous merchant of Des Moines, Mo. The ceremony which was solemn and impressive was said by Rev. Dr. L. L. Mann, of New Haven, Conn., who used the double ring service. All of the immediate family and a few very close friends were present. The parlors were beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, and the bride was most becomingly attired in a beautiful tailored suit of blue cloth. The groom was tastily adorned in a blue suit.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served, and soon thereafter the wedding party took their departure for Louisville and other points, and in a very short time they will be at their home, Des Moines, Mo., and will at once begin housekeeping.

Mr. Kahn has certainly plucked from Columbia one of her most entertaining young ladies. She possesses an excellent education, is an entertaining conversationalist, attractive, and knows how to make friends. In her departure, Columbia loses and Des Moines, Mo., wins.

The bride received many costly and beautiful presents. The donors gave most cheerfully, but the words goodbye were hard to say.

After awhile this very popular couple will return to Columbia, at which time the glad hand will be most happily extended.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baldauf, of Louisville, Mrs. S. Goodman, Miss Mabel Goodman and Mr. Harry Goodman, Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. Jo Rosenfield, Mid-diesboro.

A CARD.

To the Republican Voters of Adair County, both Ladies and Gentlemen:—

By the time this letter reaches you, this Primary election will be almost at a close, and I wish to make this statement. I have upon my part, conducted this campaign upon the very highest plain possible, and the many, many friends all over this County, whom I have met, and re-met, I am sure will testify to the above statement, and in conclusion I want to ask each and every Republican, who believes in a square deal, to go out next Saturday, August 6th, and if you think my record for the past 4 years is of sufficient proof to warrant, cast your Vote for me, and I will pledge you, that I shall strive harder than ever, to do my duty as I see it, for the next term of this office, if I am elected. I have made a thorough canvass in this County, and I am confident I will be nominated by a safe majority, thanking my many friends for their most loyal support I beg to remain,

Very truly,
S. C. Neat.

Touring Car for Sale.

Oakland Touring Car, in No. 1 condition, run very little, been handled carefully, made no long trips, never been driven over rough roads. Complete with spare tire and all necessary equipment. Good reason for selling. For particulars write or call Mrs. Norman Hobson, 41-26 Campbellsville, Ky.

A terrific storm visited Cane Valley last Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The residence of Mr. A. H. Judd was unroofed and several other houses were more or less damaged. Trees were uprooted and a great deal of corn browned down. The town was panic stricken for a half hour or more.

A heavy dashing rain fell here late Friday afternoon. The wind was high, but no damage was done here.

Married at Liberty.

Miss Catherine Nell, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Nell, this place, has surprised her many friends. On Sunday before last Wednesday she went to Danville, on a visit. There she met Mr. I. W. Murray, a traveling salesman for a Knoxville House, who frequently made Columbia, and while here his actions showed that he was very devoted to Miss Nell, and they were regarded by those who were on the inside as lovers, though their union was not immediately expected. The supposition is that they met in Danville, and an agreement was soon reached to publicly plight their vows.

They decided to give their matrimonial vows to a minister at Liberty, and at once left for that point, and were married in the parlors of the hotel last Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock.

The couple will reside in Somerset, the location of the groom, but they are expected in Columbia soon. The bride was one of the popular young ladies of this place and was a graduate of the Columbia High School, attractive, and her husband is to be congratulated.

The groom is an excellent business man, and enjoys a fine trade through this section of Kentucky. He represents the Deaver Kennedy Company, dry goods merchants, Knoxville, Tenn., being one of the firm.

The best wishes of this community go with this very deserving couple.

New Organization.

As was stated in last week's News the Columbia Fair will be held the 30th and 31st of August and the 1st and 2nd days of September. It is a new organization and the company proposes to conduct it upon a different plan. The Company will not accept donations nor will it issue passes and by carrying out this agreement it believes it will save quite a sum of money and will make the Fair self sustaining. Remember, that there will be no passes and no donations accepted.

Typhoid Fever Raging.

The State Board of Health has sent out a general warning that, inasmuch as typhoid fever is raging over the state, the Board "requests every citizen of the state to be vaccinated against typhoid fever by his or her family physician as soon as possible with the reliable vaccine material furnished free from the State Health Department office." Any further information can be had from the State Board of Health at Louisville.

All parties owing accounts must settle by August 20th. If you do not heed this notice your account will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

Wanted

Ten thousand people to attend the Columbia Fair, Aug. 30-31st Sept. 1st 2nd. A liberal premium list, all kinds of attractions, good racing every day.

Mr. O. R. Jones, who has been engaged in West Virginia for some time, but more recently in a school, in Indianapolis, to correct an impediment in his speech, reached home last Monday. His speech has greatly improved, and he feels satisfied that it will soon be fully recovered. He hopes, in a short time, to return to his position in West Virginia.

Mr. Dwight Sandidge, of Greensburg, drew the automobile at Campbellsville on the 26th of July. The car is valued at $500 and cost the winner 30 cents.

Mr. Wm. Boyd, who lived on Crocus, died last Thursday. He was a son of Washington Boyd, and was about forty-five years old, and was a good citizen.

Belsher--Chandler.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated this morning at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. M. B. Hays, when he spoke the words that made two well-known and popular people of Hillsboro man and wife uniting Mr. T. Y. Chandler and Miss Alma Belsher in the holy bonds of matrimony. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left immediately after the ceremony for Waco where after a short visit they will be at home in apartments in the W. E. Sanders residence. The bride is a very popular lady having a large circle of warm friends whom she made by her courteous refined manners and her personal interest in the welfare of her friends. She has for several years owned and managed the Hem-stitching parlor on Elm street and every customer she has had has left her place a friend.

T. Y. Chandler is considered one of the best dry goods men and clerks the town has ever had. His knowledge of dry goods and his ability as a salesman that pleases customers has been unquestioned and his services are always in demand by the customers of the store. He has been a valued employee of the Hillsboro Dry Goods Store ever since the organization of that firm and he has made a long list of warm personal friends and admirers during his long business career in our city. The Mirror with all the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler wishes them happy days together.—Hillsboro Texas Mirror.

Fair Ground Privilege.

All privileges on the Columbia Fair Grounds for the four days of the fair, Aug. 30, 31-Sept. 1st and 2nd, will be sold to the highest bidder, at the Court House door, on next Saturday Aug. 6th, at 2 p. m.

Still Captured.

Last Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock, a report came to Mr. Cortez Sanders, sheriff of Adair county, and Mr. R. L. Smythe, deputy sheriff, that a still was in operation, in a hollow, close to the Joshua Hatcher place, on the Greensburg road. The officers at once chartered an automobile, the driver being Mr. Lawrence Pickett, and by 4 o'clock they were at the scene. The still was in operation, not a man about it. It was a sixty gallon still, and they found one thousand gallons of beer, tubs, etc., and about four gallons of backing. The beer and everything connected with the still were destroyed and the still brought to Columbia and will be kept here until a government official arrives, who will destroy it.

The officers deserve the praise of the entire county for their quick work. Some good citizens have an idea who owned the still, but no proof has come to light.

Money Recovered

Last Saturday night Mr. Elijah Melson, who lives on Crocus creek, went to bed, placing his pants containing $640 under the head of his bed. He was soon sound asleep, and while he was unconscious, some one entered his room, slipped out the pants and escaped. Mr. Melson did not know his money was gone until morning, at which time he discovered his trousers on his porch. Blood hounds were ordered and took the trail, and in the meantime whoever stole the money pitched the pocket-book into his yard. The book contained all the money. If it had not rained the dogs would have located the thief.

Barger Bros. now have in their employ Mr. L. L. Eubank, who is an experienced salesman and very accommodating.

The largest number of colored people ever known to be on the pike, near the colored churches, was here last Sunday.

A Correction.

It has been circulated over this district, that I wrote Judge Jones, of Columbia, Ky., that Heb Lawrence's father was not a soldier.

I desire to say that when I wrote this letter my information was that he was not a soldier and this belief was strengthened by the fact that I had often heard Heb say that he had to support himself and widowed mother, during his boyhood days, and never mentioned the fact that they drew a pension.

Under the pension laws a widow and her infant children were supported by the U. S. government (the most generous and grateful government on the earth).

I gave Judge Jones the names of two federal soldiers in Monroe County who know to wit: Captain Roddy and George Frain, that Judge Jones might write these men and ascertain the facts in the case.

I did not mean that these were the only two federal soldiers in the county, but that they were men who would know.

My letter was not written for publication but was in answer to a letter from Judge Jones and it was not copied correctly in the Columbia Republican. I would not misrepresent Mr. Lawrence in any way, hence this correction and explanation.

J. C. Carter.

Attention, Voters.

To the Republican Voters of Adair Co:

Ladies and Gentlemen, as it is only a few days before the Primary and I have been unable to see each one of you personally, I feel it is my duty to drop you this card expressing my heartiest appreciation of your support, at the polls next Saturday.

You will remember that you will only nominate a man at this primary and the race will be run by the nominee and some man on the Democrat ticket, for the Sheriff's office, and this race will be decided at the November election. So give this your careful consideration. On the ballot and in the column of candidates for Sheriff you will find that the first place has been allotted to me. If you will place your stencil there, I will be your nominee, and your next sheriff, serving the good people of Adair county, in every way possible for the preservation of law and order.

I am yours very truly,
J. M. Wolford

Serious Loss.

Last Tuesday afternoon while an electric storm was raging at Gradyville, Dr. L. C. Nell's stock was running in one of his fields, and the owner was away from home. A keen bolt of lightning came, killing four mules and two horses owned by the doctor. His loss is estimated here to be between one thousand and twelve hundred dollars.

Mr. Otho W. Wilson and Miss Rosa P. Tompkins, who lived near Russell Springs, were married a few days ago at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Reuben Western and Miss Frances Wooten were married at James town last Saturday week. They will probably reside at Lula, Ky., the home of the groom.

The Burkesville special fair will be held August 11th and 12th instead of August 4th and 5th. The change in date was made after some bills had been printed for the 4th and 5th. Remember that the Fair will be held August 11th and 12.

Do not fail to attend the shows this week, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. The pictures will be of special interest. Good music.

A team made up of Columbia and Campbellsville players was defeated by a score of 13 to 8 at Campbellsville last Tuesday by the Greensburg team.

Candidate for County Judge Dies.

Mr. Wm. Hobson, a lawyer well-known in Columbia, a candidate for Judge of the Russell County Court, his residence being Jamestown, died in a Louisville Hospital Saturday morning and was buried in Campbellsville last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Hobson had been afflicted with gall stone and other diseases for several months, and he went to Louisville for an operation. He did not improve after he went under the knife, and Friday his wife and children were summoned. He continued to grow weaker and Saturday morning the end came. His death makes four of the Hobson family, all brothers, that have died in the last few months. Mr. Hobson was a Mason and was doubtless buried by the fraternity. He was a good citizen and was a prominent in the affairs of Russell county. He had many personal friends.

Curiosity.

Sparksville, Ky., July 27, 1921.

Adair County News:

We had a chicken hatched at our place the 26th, with 4 perfectly formed legs and feet. The two front legs are located as the legs of an ordinary chicken with the toes pointing forward. The two rear legs are located just behind the front legs with the toes pointing to the rear. Its body is longer than that of an ordinary chicken.

Yours Respt.

A Day Long to Be Remembered.

On Friday, July 22, relatives and friends met at the home of Prof. Thomas H. Coffey, of Glenville, to celebrate his wife's 63rd birthday. Aunt Mollie was sure surprised as she had gone to visit a sick lady that morning, and came home about 10:30 and found her friends and relatives there, awaiting her return, and a well loaded table. Eleven cakes centered the table. It was sure as nice a dinner as could have been set. There were about 53 present to partake of the good dinner. Every body seemed to enjoy the day, especially Uncle Tom and Aunt Mollie. The afternoon was spent in singing and prayer and a short talk was given by Uncle Tom. We wish you many more happy birthdays, Auntie.

One that was there,
Genetti Coffey.

Almost Drowned.

Last Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Jo Russell and children who are visiting here, from Louisville, went to Russell creek to bathe. While the grown persons were in the stream, Jean, a four year old daughter of Mr. Russell was left on the bank, in her bathing suit. Presently she was missing. She had gotten into deep water and was almost drowned when taken out.

Mr. G. B. Smith, who recently removed to Oklahoma, has presented the Methodist Church, this place, with three Globe lights, 300 wats each. They were installed last Tuesday and Wednesday. One of the lights is for the annex, the other two for the main auditorium.

Mr. Jo Coy, brother of Mr. J. W. Coy and Mrs. W. T. McFarland, who was run over in Louisville more than a year ago by an automobile, losing one of his legs, and who has been here for nearly a year, is now able to come down on the square.

Mr. W. B. Walker and wife and Mr. C. W. Marshall and wife left for Campton, Ky., last Thursday. The former will be the principal of the Graded and High Schools of that place and the others mentioned will be teachers. It is a splendid set of young people.

Columbia Fair, Aug. 30-31st Sept. 1st and 2nd.

From Buffalo, N. Y.

July 29, 1921.

Editor News:—
The label on my paper indicates that the life of subscription expired on the 26th of July, and I am enclosing my check for two dollars for renewal of subscription for another year, and you may change the label accordingly. Your paper is a welcome visitor to my home and carries me back in memory across the gulf of years to the time when I was a resident of your town and mingled with the best and purest people on earth. I speak advisedly and from experience after more than a quarter of a century of life and travel in different States and associations with different peoples. Columbia is not the largest town, but is the best town of its size on earth so far as I know and verily believe. While you have not Railroad facilities, let me say it is in one sense a blessing in disguise. You are not troubled with foreigners and undesirables that always go with the Railroads, and let me say here and now, I believe the greatest danger our Nation and Government is in to-day lies in the undesirable emigrants here and still coming by the ship load. When I stand on the street corner and see and hear the jib-jabber of 40 or 50 strange looking human beings from foreign lands and read in the press of the crimes and misdemeanors committed by them, and of their disregard for our form of Government, it is enough to make the heart of a true American sick, and to wonder where this will lead to if more stringent emigration laws are not made and enforced.

I hope you are enjoying the blessings of health and happiness as you go marching down the stream of time.
Very truly,
N. B. Miller.

Persons who are visiting the Fair Grounds are gratified over the appearance of the grounds, amphitheater, etc. They now have the look of the first year of the Fair. The grounds have been mowed and all rubbish removed. Strangers will again say this year, "Columbia has the most attractive grounds in the State." The music during the exhibition will be up to date.

The Columbia Fair Grounds and buildings will be put in first class condition ready for the Fair, Aug. 30-31 Sept. 1st and 2nd.

Bud Chandler, a well-known business man and farmer, who lives in Campbellsville, was badly hurt a few days ago. He was at his saw-mill and was edging a plank which flew out of position, striking him in the face, breaking both his upper and lower jaws. Mr. Chandler is a first cousin of Mrs. Rollin Hurt, of this place.

The body of John Arthur Mitchell, who was killed in France August 29, 1918, arrived at Ote, Green county last week. He was a son of John A. Mitchell, who is well known here. He was buried on the farm of his father, Dr. L. B. Hart preaching the discourse.

Do not forget to send to the exchange at Columbia immediately after the counting of the result, next Saturday. Send the full vote each candidate received in all the races.

The boiler for the refinery at Creelsboro, reached this place last Tuesday. It will not be long until gasoline will be refined, at this point, in large quantities.

Richard Handy, about thirty years old, died near Mt. Gilead church, one day last week. He was a victim of consumption and was sick more than a year.

Rev. O. B. Ulery, of Ohio, and several workers, are holding a meeting at Garlin. The public is invited.

The candidates have only three days in which to tell the constituents howdy, and make inquiry about the health of the children.

$66,000 THIEF GIVEN 3 YEARS

Memphis Teller for 12 Years
Missed Vacations to Shield
His Shortage.

COURT GETS HIS CONFESSION

Began With $100 Holdout and Lived in Hope of Making All Good—Never Missed a Day or Was Late —Strain Was Terrible.

Memphis, Tenn.—Alex V. Smith, formerly note teller for the First National bank, stood convicted, but elated with a three-year term, given to him after he had confessed to a $66,001.37 peculation and pleaded guilty.

During the 12 years Smith was connected with the bank he never took a vacation, never was absent or late in reporting for duty. He told reporters in order to cover up the shortage he had to be continually on the job.

John D. Martin, Smith's counsel, read a copy of Smith's confession to the court in his plea for leniency. The confession says:

"I, Alex V. Smith of Raleigh, Tenn., do hereby make confession.

"I was born in Liverpool, England, on June 8, 1883. I left England and came to the United States when I was about twenty-two years old. After a short stay in New York city I came to Memphis, Tenn., and became a bank clerk in the employ of the Bank of Commerce of Memphis, where I worked for about nine months. I then entered the employ of the First National bank of Memphis, Tenn., and was continuously employed there until January 13, 1921. I was note teller at the First National bank for about 12 consecutive years. During this time I gave diligent attention to the duties of the position.

Began With $100.
"About 11 years ago, one day after the vaults were closed, to accommodate a customer I took a deposit of about $100. That night I used this money to pay a debt, hoping to replace it immediately. It was never replaced, and the shortage grew, until January 12, 1921, it amounted to $66,501.37.

"My method of concealment was throughout the entire period of shortage to hold for a day or two, then remit, being in the manner always short in my remittances.

"I married about eight years ago, and at the time of my marriage my shortage was comparatively small. My family consists of my wife, aged thirty-one years, and three children, Alex V. Jr., aged seven; Jim Mangrum, aged six, and Jay Shaw, aged two years, nine months.

"The moneys which I embezzled from the bank were absorbed in my personal expense and extravagances. I have not dissipated money in gambling or speculation. I have, of course, entertained the vague hope that I could make restitution of these peculations, but have been crushed with the realization that this was impossible.

Strain Has Been Terrible.

"The strain of my situation has, of course, been terrible, and I have suffered immense mental torture for years.

"I have been unable to obtain sufficient sleep or rest except through the use of intoxicants, and have been compelled to resort to the same means as a stimulant to enable me to discharge the regular duties of my office.

"It is my intention and desire that in the event there should be an indictment returned against me on account of my wrongdoing to immediately enter a plea of guilty to the same and throw myself without reservation upon the mercy of the court.

"It is my desire to receive such penalty as may be inflicted on me as speedily as possible, it being my deep desire, after I have met my punishment, to rise again and be a man. It will be my earnest effort to make good, in the fullest measure possible, the loss which has been occasioned as the result of my wrongdoing."

After the shortage was discovered Smith says regarding his conversation with bank officials:

"I gave them the exact figures, to wit, $66,001.37, together with all data and documents pertaining thereto, thereby enabling the officials of the bank to make a speedy adjustment of their records. I gave the exact amount of my shortage as stated above, so that the bank would not be put to the necessity of a long, laborious and expensive audit of my accounts.

Chained Hound Fed by Airedale.
Point Pleasant, W. Va.—"Pat," an Airedale puppy, owned by E. E. Thomas of this town, for some time has been bringing choice bones to "Jack," a hound, which Bert Shiflet, its master, keeps chained to its kennel. It was learned. Extra bones and choice bits of meat have been noticed near the kennel. Mrs. Shiflet watched and saw "Pat" approach with a large soup bone. He placed it in front of his friend, wagged his tail while it was devoured, and then romped away.

Vet Regains Voice.
Concordia, Kan.—Work in the harvest fields worked a miraculous cure for Henry Fallows of Pittsburgh, who had been unable to talk since he was shell shocked. He was prostrated by the heat. When he recovered consciousness he said: "Well, I can talk now."

Lots of Elderberry Wine; Pies and Jams Scarce

Harrisburg, Pa.—Elderberry pie and elderberry jam will be scarce in Pennsylvania next winter, according to reports received by state agriculture officials from farmers, but there will be no dearth of elderberry wine.

City wine makers in automobiles are robbing the elder bushes of their blossoms to make wine, the farmers complain.

With short strawberry and raspberry crops as a result of the drought, farmers were laying great store by their elderberry crop, but the other drought caused by national prohibition bids fair to make the elderberry crop short.

PAJAMAS "NOBBY" ON STREET

Russ Officer's Garb Leads to Distribution of Garments to Refugees.

Constantinople, Turkey.—American Red Cross and army pajamas are being converted into jaunty street clothes here by ingenious Russian refugee soldiers and civilians.

Hugh S. Bird, treasurer of the Red Cross, when here on a visit of inspection, saw a spick-and-span monocléd Russian officer flourishing a cane and fanning himself with a straw hat at the local Red Cross offices. He noticed that the man had taken a suit of pajamas, sewed shoulder strap braid on them, strapped his officer's belt about them and rolled up the bottoms to give a trouser effect.

Mr. Bird thought so well of the ingenuity of the man, who had defeated the hot weather, that he gave orders for several thousand more pajamas to be distributed, so no Russian need wear his heavy, shabby winter clothes.

TESTING DEPTH BOMB.

Our crack yankee tars of the Pacific fleet have found a new method of experimenting with depth bombs. In a forest near Tacoma, a contrivance, pictured here, has been constructed. It is built after the fashion of a pile driver. A test bomb is placed directly beneath the weight at the top of the grooved slide, and the weight is permitted to drop naturally. It has been found that the velocity attained by dropping from different heights gives to the weight a pressure equal to that of the water at corresponding depths. The result is that data is secured so that at sea explosions can be timed accurately, thus preventing premature explosions which might injure the ship carrying the bombs and fail to destroy enemy craft.

BOY BURNS UP MOTORBOAT

Heard Mother Objecting to Father Taking Ride in Craft, So He Destroyed It.

Philadelphia.—The mystery of the burning of the motorboat Susan G. at Camden has been cleared up by the confession of Ernest Gries, Jr., seventeen years old.

The youth told the police he burned the boat to please his mother. He told of lying on the lounge in the sitting room of his home while his mother and father were arguing over a trip the father wanted to take on the craft with a boat club over the holiday. Mrs. Gries did not want her husband to go.

The boy said he told his mother he would burn the boat, and so, early in the morning he went aboard in his canoe, soaked everything with gasoline from the tank, set it on fire and was blown overboard. He swam ashore, he said, and went to bed.

FLIES 300 MILES AN HOUR

Monoplane Invented by Italian Engineer Said to Need Little Landing Space.

Rome, Italy.—An airplane capable of landing without the need of a large aviation field, able to travel more than 300 miles an hour and, if necessary, to meander along at only a few miles an hour is announced as the invention of an Italian engineer, Eppaminonda Bertucci of Rome.

The inventor reports that he has already tried out the machine on a small scale and regards his first experiments as indicative of the success of the invention. The new machine is primarily intended for aerial war chasing and is to be armed with a machine gun. It is a monoplane.

CUBA IS FREE OF 'EL POTE'

Island Republic Rejoices at the Death of its Richest Millionaire.

CRUEL POWER OF WEALTH

Peasant Trod Down Millions as He Piled up Riches on Misfortunes of Others—Lived and Died a Brute.

Havana.—"El Pote" is dead and all Cuba rejoices. The peasant who became a millionaire many times over and used his wealth to wield a cruel power died as he had lived, haunted and hated, a victim of his own power. In 40 years he established a career lurid with tragedy, dark with sordid scheming, tremendous with both success and failure. A year ago reputed the richest man in Cuba, he came to a miserable end at his own hands, and almost his last words were that the wealth which cost him 40 years of unremitting toil to accumulate did not yield him one hour of happiness.

Jose Lopez Rodriguez was known to virtually every one in Cuba. He was a strange, sinister figure, and even in death he furnishes a remarkable example of what can be accomplished by the constant, ruthless application of power to a single task. Ferre el Pote (the pot boils) was his watchword, his motto, the rule of his sordid life; and it was from this that he came to be called "El Pote," the name with which millions became familiar. For years he thrived, at the expense of others. Then the fortunes of war turned against him, and, fearing the loss of all his ill-gotten gains, he committed suicide by hanging himself with a twisted sheet.

Filthy of Body.
Not more than five feet in height, "El Pote" had the powerful, thickset frame typical of the Gallego peasant. He wore the oldest clothes he could find and was foul of mind and speech and filthy of body.

Jose Lopez Rodriguez was born in Spain and emigrated to Cuba in his fifteenth year, fleeing from the hard conditions of the Gallego peasant life. In Havana for a while he worked with pick and shovel, but as soon as he could he abandoned such hard manual labor to work for an old second-hand book dealer, peddling the books from house to house. One morning his aged employer was found dead in his bed and young Lopez Rodriguez, who slept on the premises, was arrested on suspicion of murder, but after spending some time in prison he was released for lack of sufficient evidence to indict.

The widow of the murdered book-dealer continued the business and Lopez Rodriguez, after his release from prison returned to his old employment. One morning the widow was found hanging in her room, but, no evidence being found to confirm a suspicion that there had been foul play, a verdict of suicide was returned. By the time the young employee had saved up some money and he bought the business.

Piles Dollar on Dollar.
Living upon almost nothing and working tirelessly, he steadily increased his trade and piled one dollar on another until with the passage of the years his fortune grew to respectable dimensions.

When, after the wealth of Cubans had been drained by three years of revolution and embargo, the American fleet blockaded Havana in 1898, "El Pote"—for by that time he had come universally to be known by his sobriquet—was able to acquire for cash large properties for a tithe of their value, and when the Cuban republic was set up he was a rich man among men who had been ruined. The latter were compelled to go to him for cash which he alone was able to lend. And so it came to pass that many of those to whom the government of the young republic was entrusted were his debtors—which he never allowed them to forget.

He secured a monopoly on all Cuban printing, for which scandal scores went to jail. Then he got control of one of the biggest banks and wrecked that, "borrowing" no less than $11,000,000 without security of any kind. He loaned millions, but always demanded from 50 to 100 per cent interest.

It is believed that after the payment of all debts the estate of Jose Lopez Rodriguez will be worth somewhere around $10,000,000, proving that it was not the fear of penury that drove him to end his life in the fashion by which his employer 40 years ago had died and which had marked the beginning of his own prosperity.

Doctors Operated.
St. Louis.—Carl Williams, a negro, held by the police on a minor charge, the other day complained of stomach pains. An examination revealed he had swallowed a key and a nail. "Mighty funny; things like that don't usually bother me," he remarked. He was operated on for their removal.

Seeks "Rocket to Moon" Fund.
Worcester, Mass.—To send a rocket to the moon, as Prof. Robert H. Goddard of Clark college plans to do, will cost money, and the funds for completion of his experiments may be obtained by public subscription.

Relief in Sight.

If a settlement of the Irish question is made that will be reasonably satisfactory to both sides it will be one great relief not only to them, but to the people of the United States as well.

Our country today is practically divided into two camps on the subject—a minority of ardent champions of the Irish cause, and a majority who believe in letting countries on the other side of the water manage their own affairs without interference from us.

It is a source of uneasiness to many professional politicians who want to keep in the good graces of their Irish constituents, yet year to alienate the support of those in the other camp. It keeps them wiggling and squirming in an attempt to say something and yet at the same time say nothing.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back—especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

THE pull of a strange fascination took Bill Dale, city-bred but mountain-minded, to the Tennessee hills. Joining the Morelands, he took up their friendships and enmities. Love healed one feud; but there was coal under David Moreland's mountain, and a new feud was born.

A tale of rare charm in which the beauty and strength of a woman's love is shown rising superior to the ties of blood and tradition.

Gradyville

We have had fine rains during the past week.

Our growing crops of corn and tobacco are looking fine since the rain.

W. B. Hill spent last Saturday and Sunday at Bakerton.

James Buchanan, the popular groceryman of Campbellsville, was here the first of the week.

Uncle Robert O. Keltner, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, does not improve fast.

Mr. Curt Bell, the efficient merchant of Red Lick, passed through here last Friday en route for Columbia.

Judge James Kinnaird, of Edmonton, called in to see us for a few minutes on his return from Columbia, a few days ago. Judge Kinnaird reports business very good in his town.

Mr. E. E. Nell and children, after spending several days at Edmonton visiting relatives and friends, returned home the first of the week.

Mr. Ray Flowers, of Columbia whose health is not as good as he desires, is using the water from G. E. Nell's sulphur well. Mr. Flowers thinks the water is doing him good.

David Kinnaird, of Nell, was in our midst last Friday, and reported good rains in his community last week, and everything in the way of vegetation were looking fine.

Quite a lot of sickness in this and adjoining communities at this time. Several cases of typhoid fever and flux.

Judge Smith and Hon. Hebron Lawrence, of Tompkinsville, in company with Judge J. Hancock, of Columbia, spent last Monday in our town, looking after their interest in the primary. Mr. Lawrence called in his appointment here on account of religious services in our town.

The work on the new pike from this place to Columbia is being pushed. Our people have the spirit of good roads on again and we take it, before the cold season is put on our pike to Columbia will be completed. Nothing speaks better for a community than good roads.

J. F. Pendleton, of Greensburg, sent over word that he would be in our midst last Monday, to buy all kinds of stock that were on the market. About the 10 o'clock hour, he in company with Mr. Bridgewater arrived, and found a lot of our farmers with their calves and lambs ready to be weighed up, for which he paid the market price. Mr. L. B. Cain was also present and received a number of calves and cattle. Both of the above men are worth a great deal to this community, for they are both always ready to buy all kinds of stock at the market price.

Rev. Lee Pendleton, of Greensburg, is conducting a revival service at the Baptist church in our city at this time. The meeting is daily growing in interest. Up to this time there has been a number of profession. All denominations are very much interested. The indications are that this will be one of the greatest revivals that has been in this community for years.

Man Wanted.

Wanted—A man for hard work and rapid promotion; a man who can find things to be done without the help of a manager and three assistants.

A man who gets to work on time in the morning and does not imperil the lives of others in an attempt to be first out of the office at night.

A man who is neat in appearance and does not sulk for an hour's overtime in emergencies.

A man who listens carefully when he is spoken to and asks only enough questions to insure the accurate carrying out of instructions.

A man who moves quickly and makes as little noise as possible about it.

A man who looks you straight in the eye and tells the truth every time.

A man who does not pity himself for having to work.

A man who is cheerful, courteous to everyone and determined to "make good."

A man who, when he does not know, says, "I don't know," and when he is asked to do anything says, "I'll try."

A man who does not make the same mistake twice, who is not a goody-goody a pig or a cad, but who does the very best he knows how with every task entrusted to him.

This man is wanted everywhere. Age or lack of experience do not count. There isn't any limit, except his own ambition, to the number or the size of the jobs he can get. He is wanted in every big business from Maine to California—Herbert Hoover.

Two persons were killed in Louisville Sunday in automobile accidents and four more injured.

Tariff on shoes was beaten in the House by the Western Republican Congressmen voting with the Democrats.

Soldier boys, you put up your lives to save this country from Germany, but your uncle, Warren G. Harding killed your bonus bill.

Gov. Small, of Illinois, has been indicted for embezzling the State's funds. He at first refused to submit to arrest, but he concluded that he could not fight the courts, and has surrendered for trial.

All members of the Irish Parliament, who are now in jail, are to be released. This action is taken in order to give the Irish officials an opportunity to discuss the settlement of the Irish question with England.

Warren C. Spurgin is on the wing and officers are scouring the country. He has just robbed a Trust Company of Chicago out of $700,000. It is believed now that he is headed for Mexico. His wife and daughter went to Detroit, but they can not be located.

Charles H. Searcy has been selected by the Republican State Committee, to succeed the late A. T. Hert as Kentucky's National Committeeman. Robt. W. Hunter was named as State Chairman, Mrs. John W. Langley, of Pikeville, was elected Vice Chairman of the State Central Committee.

Irwin C. Lynch, who stole $15,000 from the Standard Oil Company and given two years in the penitentiary, at Frankfort, has been paroled after serving one year. Another firm has offered him a good position. That is one way to treat criminals.

Judge Quin, who is a member of the Court of Appeals, and who was recently nominated by the Republicans for the office of Mayor of the city of Louisville, refuses to resign his present position until after the November election. His friends over the State are condemning his action. If he wants the office of Mayor, he should resign his present post.

The bootleggers and moonshiners over the State continue to defy the officers. Two or more men are killed daily, and the making and selling of liquor goes right along. The fact is, the moonshiners have the backing of too many men who call themselves good citizens. When it comes to selling bottle in bond whisky, who is mostly interested in the sale of it?

J. E. Murrell:

The Attorney General of Kentucky has ordered the Sheriff of Christian county to collect the poll tax for school purposes off women voters.

J. C. Carter.

Please publish.

This applies to the whole State.

We have just looked over a copy of the Ashland Daily Independent, a paper that was established in 1895, and is now edited by Mr. Paul J. Hughes, who is a son of Mr. E. H. Hughes, of the First National Bank, this place. The paper is independent in politics, and from its appearance it is doing a splendid business, as its columns are filled with live advertising matter. The present editor is a splendid young man, well educated, and has heretofore engaged in the newspaper business. In his new venture he has the best wishes of this publication.

The Louisville Post in speaking of Gov. Morrow's contemplated visit to Louisville, to make speeches for the fall election, says: "It is said upon apparently good authority that Gov. E. P. Morrow will make a number of speeches in Louisville this fall for the Searcy ticket. Fine! Let the Governor come by all means, and let him bring Maurice Galvin with him. We can be certain that both would be given careful attention if they could be prevailed upon to discuss the Frank Blair pardon. And let Governor Morrow be sure of one thing. If he comes to Louisville, this year or any other year, to make a political speech, he will be expected to tell us something about Blair and his pardon. The people of Louisville have not forgotten that incident, and are not likely to forget it. And, perhaps, the Franklin county grand jury, when it next convenes, will be able to adduce some information that may add to the interest in that little affair."

Good rains fell in many parts of the State the first of last week. The farmers are smiling and the business men are also happy.

Obituary.

Z. T. Wade, of color, who lived near Montpellier, died at his home, Tuesday July 19. He was about 46 years old. He joined the church about ten years ago, and lived a consistent christian life. He gained many friends around him, both white and colored, who gave him all the attention and assistance, during his illness that were possibly needed. The deceased was sexton of the Pleasant Grove Baptist church and was always found on duty and willing to do whatever his hands found to do. He was also a great singer, belonging to the Pleasant Grove choir. His melodious voice will be missed by the hearers whom he had comforted and cheered. He leaves a wife, sister, aunt, three uncles and a host of friends to mourn their loss. C. C. Willis.

A modern tale of romance, the characters of which might fit an earlier century.

The Clan Call

By Hapsburg Liebe

Located in one of those feud sections of the South, where one meets that oddly blended blood of Puritan and Cavalier; where God-fearing men recognize few laws excepting those of their own making; where they read the Bible, pray for their enemies and then go forth heavily armed prepared to kill on sight; where the sufferings of the women, mother-love, wife-love and sister-love are working a change in code and gradually subduing primitive instincts.

One of the most fascinating settings for romance and adventure, it has been too much neglected. Hapsburg Liebe helps to supply the deficiency with this charming story.

CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Hapsburg Liebe

Hapsburg Liebe (Charles Haven Liebe), a native of the Tennessee mountains has been soldier, timberjack and sawmill man. In his education he was denied even the little red school house, his alma mater being a log structure in the hills which he left by way of a window at twelve years of age. But he had a taste for reading and has acquired a fine command of English and a writing style through study of the best authors.

At seventeen he commenced writing and turned out eighteen stories, all rejected by the editors. He was almost discouraged; but his nineteenth effort stuck with a respectable magazine. Lack of education made the way doubly hard; but now, when he sells all he writes, he will tell you that the experience was worth all it cost.

Gritty! Indeed he is! At eighteen he joined a regiment for service in the Philippines. Time to entrain found him ill with pneumonia. Against the wishes of his captain and the orders of his doctor, he accompanied the outfit, being carried to the cars by his buddies. Most of his stories are about the Tennessee and Kentucky mountaineers. They are his people and better than any other writer, he knows and loves them. "The Clan Call," his most delightful tale, will soon start as a serial in this paper. Your misfortune if you miss it.

Calumet Baking Powder Co.,
4100 Fillmore St.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr. Bell:

As an expression of appreciation of the valuable service rendered by your Company to the Retail Grocers of the United States through coupling reading matter with your advertising as news items defending the Retailer—the 24th Annual Convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers in Kansas City, Missouri on June 6, 7, 8, 1921, unanimously adopted the following resolution—presented by John C. Coode of Tenn., and seconded by A. A. LaRose, of Louisiana:

"We, your Committee on Resolutions, desire to take notice of the splendid co-operation of the Calumet Baking Powder Co.

We note in its daily newspaper advertising it is giving the buying public the true facts regarding the retailers position in the distribution of food products; therefore:—

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the National Association of Retail Grocers in Convention assembled, endorse and commend the action of the Calumet Baking Powder Co., in giving the facts regarding the Retail Grocers of the United States."

Very truly yours,
National Association Retail Grocers

During the five months of active participation in the fighting in France nearly fifty thousand Americans were killed in battle, but in the same year some four thousand persons were killed while crossing the street or walking on some peaceful country road; and that form of slaughter continues and increases year after year. In the number of casualties that it causes carelessness is as terrible as war.—Ex.

Farm Life Looking Up.

A noted writer declares that in time the lonesomeness of farm life will be done away with, and that tilling the soil will become a popular vocation.

He might have said that much of the lonesomeness has already been banished, and that the remainder is rapidly disappearing.

The automobile has done it. There is no need for the farmer or his family or his help to feel lonesome these days.

Distance no longer exists for him.

With his car he can be in town at any time within a few minutes. He can visit his neighbors for miles around any evening after supper, while attendance at church on Sunday and social gatherings at other times require but little more effort than is consumed in walking around a city block.

His life in many ways is preferable to that of the city dweller. His health is enhanced by the sunshine and the pure country air that he breathes. His life is not menaced by the constant stream of cars driven by reckless motorists, as is the case in most cities.

His children grow to maturity in the purity of contact with nature, instead of being surrounded by the questionable environment of more congested centers, where there is little opportunity to sift the good from the bad. He is free to go and come as he desires and is not hedged around with the myriads of restrictions and laws of the city man.

Tilling the soil is popular now. It will become more so as time goes on and the beauties and advantages of nature are better known and understood by those who now live by a clock and the factory whistle.—Lancaster Record.

A bullet having spent its force in all probability saved the life of Miss Josephine Cherry, of Bowling Green, who is educational director of her father's school. W. C. Poston, an officer, fired at a man who was endeavoring to steal an automobile belonging to B. C. White. The bullet went through the window of the home of Dr. H. H. THEY DO NOT VOTE.

There are 105,273,049 persons in the United States.

Of these 2,653,422 are insane or illiterate.

Deduct also those not old enough to vote.

That leaves 57,527,629 possible voters in this country.

Now observe: only 26,674,574 votes were cast the last Presidential election.

More persons did not vote than voted, 30,853,055 stay-at-homes, 53 per cent slackers!

The best showing is in the West North Central States, with 36.3 per cent of non voters.

Then come the East-North Central States with 42.9 per cent, and the Mountain States with 46.9 per cent.

Close together are the Pacific States (56.1 per cent), the New England States (56.2), and the Middle Atlantic States.

The list is closed by the South Atlantic States (65.8 per cent not voting) and East-South Central States (67.9 per cent.)

We had a good rain last week for which we should be truly thankful. There are many ways to express our appreciation of God's blessings, besides uttering the words, by being kind to those less fortunate, administering to the afflicted, really trying to make somebody happier each day. For the Savior said "as ye did unto the least of these ye did it unto me."

Quarterly meeting was held at Clear Spring Saturday and Sunday. Your correspondent was sick and could not attend, but understand large crowds attended each meeting. Bro. Wade delivered able sermons.

The Holiness people, Holy Rollers, as they call themselves, have pitched their tents at Garlin, Concord, and are expected at Oak Grove this week. Truly the people of this world are being preached to death. One should repent, confess the Savior, and walk uprightly, live a Christian every day. But Holy rolling, Holy dancing and many other thing they practice, we fear, instead of being holy, is an abomination.

KENTUCKY FARMERS REAP RICH HARVEST.

Revenue from Breeding Thoroughbred Horses Only Profit to Be Depended Upon.

Sale of Blooded Colts Produces Money When Other Products Bring Loss.

The Kentucky farmer has lost money on his wheat and corn; he is forced to ship his cattle and hogs to a losing and constantly falling market; and his losses on his tobacco have nearly driven him into bankruptcy. The calamities of a troubled world are placed upon his back, already bent double by its burdens.

Under these untoward conditions, the one fortunate exception among farmers is the stock raiser who owns one or more thoroughbred mares. He always finds a nation-wide demand for his thoroughbred foals. The weanling at its mother's side frequently brings him $500 to $1,000, while the yearling will sell for from $1,500 to $10,000; a colt from a Jefferson county farm having brought, at one of the recent Saratoga sales $25,000.

Year in and year out, the Kentucky thoroughbred finds a ready market; buyers from all over the world coming to this State to secure material to improve the horses of their respective countries or localities. Owner Riddle refused $500,000 for Man-O-War, a horse bred by Mr. August Belmont in Old Kentucky. A wonder horse is Man-O-War. A smasher of all records and victor over all opponents that made some of the most brilliant of turf history, he has been returned to his native hearth, there to perpetuate his great qualities. Last month, Man-O-War's full brother, Playfellow, by name, was sold for $115,000; and not long ago, John E. Madden refused $125,000 for a half interest in the Kentucky-bred stallion, Friar Rock, now in the stud at Hamburg Place, near Lexington.

Numerous other thoroughbred stallions and mares of nearly, if not quite, priceless value are owned in the State. Wheat, corn and tobacco are often crop failures, and cattle and hogs are frequently raised at a loss. But the thoroughbred has a great permanent value, for nowhere else in this country is he brought to such perfection as in Kentucky, and his fame and the demand for him are world-wide.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Patton are housekeeping in a cottage, on Frazer Avenue, opposite Mrs. Tola Walker's residence.
